Chapter 1 by Little pony2014

As a youngest child and the only girl in my family, I was spoiled a lot by my parent. They cherish me a lot not only because they pay a big price for giving birth to me but also I have a very naughty older brother and they put big attention on my brother. So I have more freedom to do whatever I want and I play good with my brother and have many good experiences such as catching the frog to sale to my neighbors and catching snake instead of fish. Because I always stay with my bother my parent give me a lot freedom.also I became very diligent child. I can wash all the dishes after each meal when I was 6 years old and wash all the family clothes for 8 persons family.i think I was a very happy child in my childhood.

However things start to change as I went to elementary school. I was sleeping in the class always since I do not understand what the teacher talk about and at that time I was 6 years old. My daily duty is to sleep everyday. And some of my friend in my class wake me up at end of day for school. I felt the school life was really hard for me. I don't like school and I don't like teacher.they all looked weird to me. And I hate boys because they are really rude and always play a trick on girls. I have two fighting in the elementary school because they offend me so I come to hit them. From this extent I was violence child. Because every day I live in fighting, fight with my brother who is fighting lover and because of this he pay great price later in his life.It is very strange I seldom scare of fighting with my brother but I do scared fighting with other people. I don't know why. Also my brother teach me some skills of fighting. When I grow older some skills I used is very efficient and easily attack opponent. But after I don't feel good and I don't enjoy the feeling of victory. I don't want to fight anymore and I am tired of fighting. At the end it brings me nothing only pain.
